Press Release

Shenzhen Xunlong Shipping Co., Ltd. and Shun Tak - China Travel Ship Management Limited To Launch New Macau – Shekou Route

(July 6, 2007 - Macau) Starting from July 6, 2007, Shenzhen Xunlong Shipping Co., Ltd. and Shun Tak China Travel Ship Management Limited will join forces in launching a new service route between Macau and Shekou, Shenzhen, offering travellers an alternative as they plan their travel. The new route offers ferry services between the Shekou Port Passenger Terminal in Shenzhen and the New Macau Maritime Ferry Terminal. In the first phase of operation, 2 departures from each port will be available daily with a sailing time of only one hour. Two high-speed vessels, “Taishan” and “Pengjiang” will be serving the new route, travelers can rest assured with a more speedy and comfortable sea journey.

Owing to the tourism boom in Macau, together with the increasingly stronger economic ties among cities in the Pearl River Delta region, passenger volume between Macau and Shenzhen has mounted significantly. In view of the constantly increasing demand from passengers for a greater variety of transportation, Shenzhen Xunlong Shipping Co., Ltd. and Shun Tak- China Travel Ship Management Limited will cooperate in running the brand new route and increase sailings in the future as passenger demand rises further.
