TurboJET further boosts HK – Macau services with additional sailings

(26 October 2007 – Hong Kong & Macau) In light of a rapid growth in Macau’s tourism and surging number of international visitors, TurboJET announced that it will further strengthen its services between Hong Kong International Airport and Macau by increasing sailings effective 1st November 2007.

Macau has been a popular tourist and business destination over recent years with visitors arriving from all over the world. Amongst these international visitors, many will travel to Macau by sea via Hong Kong. Therefore, to suit their need and reinforce connections between Hong Kong and Macau, TurboJET is introducing 3 extra sailings each day, moving to a total of 14 sailings daily from 1st November. The new schedule will minimize waiting time for passengers, rendering transit connections more versatile and convenient.

Details of the new sailing schedule, effective 1st November 2007, are as follows:

Departing HKIA	Departing Macau
1050	0815
1245*	1000
1400	1230
1530	1345*
1725*	1500
1910	1645
2200	2015
